Washington, March 4.—Supplementary information for American shipmasters sailing for Germany came to the State Department from Ambassador Gerard, at Berlin, to-day, in the form of a memorandum addressed to the naval attaché of the embassy by the German Admiralty. The memorandum said:

Thomas Gibson Bowles, former member of Parliament and a writer on naval matters, in an address before the Institute of Ship Brokers, in London, expressed with much emphasis his inability to understand the policy of reprisals against Germany outlined by Premier Anquith in his speech in the House of Commons. Mr. Bowles said:

The official medical corps showed the correspondent charts of the sickness among the soldiers, which is less than that among the troops at home, despite the strain the men are under when they take their turns in the trenches. This is due to the giving to the men of all the wholesome food they can ent and plenty of exercise when they are out of the trenches and enforcing all sanitary regulations with the strictest discipline. "As Colonel Gorgas met the health problems on the Panama Canal, so we met and conquered those in this kind of war," a medical corps officer said.
